Al, you always brought joy, happiness, and laughter with you, to the extent that it was difficult to not be happy if you were in the room. Although you will be missed dearly, I find comfort knowing you are probably busy making people smile and laugh like you did when you were down here with us. Thanks Al for being you! Fonzo, we will all miss your smile. You were a great friend and we were lucky to have crossed paths. Philippians 1:21-23 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell. I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better. RIP Fonzo...we will always love and remember you.

I do not know the family but wanted to offer my condolences. When a person dies and leaves a surviving spouse and children it always affects me because I am married with children also. I know this is a difficult time for you all but may you draw strength from God's word the Bible where He promises to bring about a changed condition on this earth where families will no longer be torn apart by death. Rev. 21:3,4.
