Diane talked me into being a Brownie Girl Scout leader in 1985 at Boze Elementary school. My daughter had joined a troop, but the leader had disappeared. She suggested that I become the leader and she mentored me while she was the Service Unit Manager. I remember always getting great advice and clever craft ideas from her. I really enjoyed gathering in her living room to hold our monthly Service Unit meetings. Diane was always welcoming and friendly. I have not seen Diane in a number of years, but still hold fond memories of working with her in the Girl Scouts. Valarie Pedlar
