Grandma Annie Shoemaker will forever be remembered by my family, especially during the holidays when she would give the blessing. It was a wonderful tradition. I especially liked hearing the stories of Steve, Brian and Kathy as they were growing up. She loved them so much. I am very happy that I was lucky enough to know and love her.~Claire Thompson (Alm)

What a lovely and dear lady. It was a joy to have her come into the church office, where I worked, every month. We would have a very good chat and off she would go on her way. I treasure those little chats and our time together. My sympathy to Annie's family. She will be missed by many. Kate Burch
