I taught Harvey to ride motorcycles and he enjoyed that. He also took me in when I had no place to go. He will be sorely missed by those that knew him. I never heard him complain and he always had a joke at his lips. Rest in peace, Harvey..

This man was once the only true friend I had. I was homeless, without a vehicle and he gave me his truck to sleep in and haul garbage for others to the dump so I did not have to beg after a very traumatic experience. He was also as a true brother. Goodbye, old friend. Sad to just know you are gone. Dennis Jacobsen
