I will always remember the loving smiles and hugs I got each time I would visit the Hess family. Also she had a thing for the Pillsbury Dough boy. Loved looking at them and when I would see them I would think " I wonder if Linda has this one" What a fun thing to look for. Thanks for the good times ~ Rest well ~ Jim and Rosalyn Fleming :)

I am so glad Linda Hess came into my life...she made a difference ...she didn't know me from Adam or Marie....she treated me like she wanted to be treated..gave me a hug 5 or 6 times a day.....if I could've met her in person I would've like her even more than ...I did on face book.....she lit up my life....always some thing to read from LindaHess A beautiful woman...with a lot love to give your facebook friend always
