Mr. Jeffery Eugene Roberts

MAY 17, 1962 - OCT 28, 2014

Mr. Jeffery Eugene Roberts was born to the parents of, Nathaniel and Laura Roberts. He attended Mount Tahoma High School and ITT Technical School, where he became a CAD Technician / Designer. Jeff, shared his kindness with his family and he will be missed.

Survivors include his father, Nathaniel, step-mother, Gloria, sister & brother-in-law, Sandra and Randolph, sisters, Theresa and Valerie. Nieces, Mashawna, Kachet, Laneil, Auzelique and nephews, Daniel, Aeron, George, great niece, Maleeha & great nephew, Myles and a host of other relatives.

To our many relatives and friends, we cannot find words to express the gratitude we feel at this time. Continue to pray that God will strengthen and help us to accept that which seems so hard to bear.

In loving memory of Jeffery Eugene Roberts

They Are Not Lost Who Find The Light Of The Sun and Stars and God.

Rest in Peace

Jeff, what can I say? Your absence is truly felt; even way out here in Texas. I remember as a little boy I use to always want to come into your room! I looked up to you and my older brothers. We were all connected by family, by love, by respect and by God. It is a privilege that I got to know you. We love you... Robert

From Your Family of Johnny Walker Sr. & Emma Brewer-Walker To the Roberts Family, During this time we trust God knowing that even when it doesn't look good all things are working together for our good. He knows what he is doing at all times. So let us always remember and rejoice in His Love that He Has For Us & His Goodness and His Mercy that will Endure Throughout All Generations. May we comfort one another with these words. We shall all be caught up together when he returns. The Walker Family
