I'm so sorry to learn, and so long after the fact, of Eleanor's passing. She and my mother were long-time friends from Sears days and after. My father finished a cabin for her; I no longer remember the location but I do remember that, although my father would never dream of asking her for money since he was glad to help out a friend, she still gave him $100. It was the first $100 bill I'd ever seen. She was a good friend to our family and I still have the hanky she brought me from Norway that has Norwegian phrases on it. I haven't lived in Longview for some time and my parents, although three years younger than Eleanor, both died before she did. She may have come to my mother's memorial service; I honestly don't remember any more who was and who wasn't there. I hope that she was comfortable in her final days; she was a good woman and a classy lady and a good friend. Kathleen Anderson (Roger and Elva Anderson's daughter)

Dear family of Eleanor Westrum, My children and I became acquainted with Miss Eleanor at Life Manor. (Our homeschool group visits with cookies and cards every month.) She always greeted us with a smile and had a kind word for us. She was a sweet lady and we're blessed to have known her. We miss her but we are glad to know she is with Jesus. We apologize for the belated condolences but we couldn't remember her last name though we knew she'd written it on a Christmas card she gave my children during our December visit. We just found the Christmas card, so wanted to send you a note to let you know what Miss Eleanor meant to us. May God bless you and comfort you. Sincerely, Sharon, Zachary and McKenna Bletscher

I worked with Eleanor at Sears in the late 70's and early 1980, until the birth of my first child. Eleanor was always so thoughtful and caring, hosting a lovely baby shower for me as I was young and newly married and had no layette or furnishings. She was so very generous and I have never forgotten her kindness. Bless you Eleanor. Elyse
