Carlos Felix Escalfullery

MAR 23, 1973 - OCT 26, 2015

Carlos Felix Escalfullery
March 23rd, 1973 – October 26th, 2015

Carlos was born March 23rd, 1973, in Fort Lewis, Washington to Francisco and Renate. Carlos spent his childhood in Parkland, Washington with his parents, stepfather, Oma (grandmother), and brothers and sisters. He graduated from Franklin Pierce High School in 1994. During school and after his graduation Carlos was involved with many organizations and activities such as the Pierce County Parks and Recreation, Special Olympics, Mainstay and Full Life. Through these groups Carlos made many friends that he cherished. These friends made a significant impact upon Carlos and his family's lives.

Upon the passing of his mother, Carlos went on to live with his sister Susi and her family. Carlos cherished his time living with Susi, Tim, Jordan and Noa, and their dogs. Carlos loved all of his dogs, meaning any dog he came across. After Susi's illness, Carlos moved in with his Sister Andrea, Charles, Tatiana, Alayna and Myah. Of course, their dogs and guinea pigs became his own.

Carlos spent much of his time with his sisters, brothers, nieces and nephews, and his caregiver Amy. Carlos also had a special relationship with his pastor and family friend, Perry Fields. Carlos cherished the memories of his time spent with his special friends Karen and Gem. Carlos was preceded in death by his mother; Renate, his sisters; Vivian and Susi, his grandparents; Margaret and Paul, and his niece; Shannon.

Carlos leaves those to celebrate his memory; his siblings and their spouses; Roger and Marion, Tony and Karen, Andrea and Charles, Kassandra, Francisco, stepfather; Juan, and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews and extended family, including his church family, and many special friends. Carlos taught those who knew him the true meaning of unconditional love and

Carlos turned our dining experience at Le Pichet Seattle into one of my greatest "meaning of life" moments. Susi was with him and his entrance into the restaurant was clearly to let all in attendance know that French restaurants should never be stuffy! God Bless you Big Man, you will be missed. Thank you for the friendship and your contribution to humanity. Bill Rahmy

One of the many things I loved about Carlos was that he always made me feel like the most special person in the room. He was always so welcoming and enthusiastic each time we ever met up, when I was visiting his dear sister Susi. He never failed to ask me how my two dogs were and I would always tell him that they were thinking of him and missed him. That always got a little smile out of him. The world lost a big ray of Sunshine when Carlos left us but I know he was welcomed with loving arms by his mother and sister and that makes me smile.

My favorite memory of Carlos is when he got done explaining to me how someone had helped him with something, and just in the nick of time. I said, "Thank God!" and Carlos replied, "Oh that's okay, I already did that this morning". Sweetest man I ever met. Kate Hurlocker, Bay Vista Facility Manager

Carlos was born in 1973 while I was in high school with my bestest of all friends, his sister Susi. Wow, it was so fun to have a friend with a little baby brother! I remember him running and running around his Oma...happy happy happy with a huge smile on his face. His mother Renate was amazing and Carlos lived a very happy life.As time moved on and everyone grew older and miles grew between us, I did not see Carlo til after he moved in with Susi. Fortunately, I got to see him many times with Susi in Seattle and a wonderful visit with them at Disneyland in California. We met twice in Las Vegas where he and my son Joe became "buddies".I was blessed to see Carlos in October of 2014 when I visited Seattle and Susi. He was very lucky in life, he had the most loving, supportive family and friends. I KNOW he is happy with Renate, Shannon and Susi in the great hands of our Lord.I will always have only the fondest, happiest memories. Until we meet again my friend.Love, Cindy
