Ron was the kindest most loving man I knew. He was like a second father, always there for me when I needed him. I have so many fond memories of Ron and Elma. I am so happy he is back in her arms again. He has missed her so much. He loved his family so much, Elma and the children meant everything to him. God Bless you Ron. Love Carla and Stevr Caviness.

I think one of my favorite things about Ron was our long conversations that usually included fond memories of his days as an electrician and at Stusser electric. He would also tell me how much he loved listening to Dale Turner lecture at University Congregational Church then tell me I'm almost as good as him in the pulpit. People who frequented his Starbucks, those he met at church and everyone he met in the hospital heard about how much he loved and missed Elma. Now Jesus is listening to Ron but Elma is with him. Ron we thank you for your warm presence. Steve Murray
