What a lovely picture of Peggy! That's my neighbor and friend. I am so saddened by her passing, but know that she is now watching over your family that she so loved, as well as being reunited with her beloved Klaus, Tabasco and Mama Kitty. I'm pretty sure that Peggy was a force to be reckoned with in her younger years. She's certainly a source of inspiration on living a vibrant, active life as a senior. I know she couldn't be kept down nor would she be a shrinking violet when it came to her beliefs and opinions. Her recovery from the accident and her tenacity are embodiments of her remarkable spirit. She is so very proud of all of you - - Mitch, Kathy, Lauren, Jessica and little Kerrigan - - and always spoke about your care and concern for her. Kerrigan was simply a treasure to her and her face lit up as she shared all of Kerrigan's cutenesses, like her fascination with Peggy's cane. For a little woman, she was a big personality. May you feel her presence as you go through your days. I'll be missing her! Judy Ferguson
