I will always remember your sweet, hard working mother. I have such fond memories growing up just a couple houses away from your family. Your mom had this lovely garden in the backyard and I remember thinking that some day when I had my own home I wanted a garden just like hers. Words cannot express how sorry I am for her loss. It says so much about her that she has left such wonderful memories for all of those who were lucky enough to cross her path. You are both in my thoughts and prayers and I pray that God gives you strength and holds you close. Much love, Vivian Hash (Sullivan)
