Jeanne Naomi DuBois Fraser

MAY 13, 1945 - MAR 2, 2017

Jeanne Naomi DuBois Fraser, beloved wife, mother, nana and sister, passed away peacefully on March 2nd surrounded by her family.

Jeanne was born to William and Kay DuBois on May 13th, 1945, in Cincinnati, Ohio. In the summer of 1964, she married Erolle Roy Fraser and within 3 years, had Julie and Bruce Fraser. The family lived in areas of Ohio, Oregon and Washington, spending most of their time in Puyallup, and in later years, Tacoma.

Jeanne loved to cook, made every house a home, and took great pride in taking care of her family. She loved unconditionally and will never be forgotten.

Jeanne is survived by her husband of 53 years, her children, granddaughters, Lindsay and Hope Fraser, and her great grand babies, Addison Choy and Noah Fraser Mahoney. She is also survived by her brother, Victor (Rick) DuBois and sister, Gayle DuBois Griffith, from Ohio, as well as nieces and nephews.

A Memorial Mass to honor Jeanne's life will be held at 9am on Friday, March 10th, at St. Charles Borromeo Parish, 7112 S. 12th St, Tacoma, 98465. A reception will follow at the family residence, 3316 South 8th, Tacoma, WA 98405. All are welcome.
