Luis Teodoro Martinez

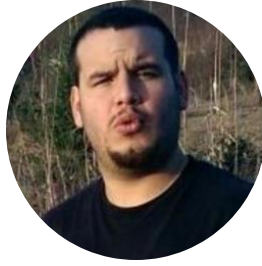

NOV 9, 1994 - MAR 31, 2017

On March 31st, 2017 Luis Teodoro Martinez was taken to be with the Lord. “Beebs” as Family would call him, was a genuinely kind soul, who brought much joy to everyone that he loved. He could bring a smile to your face with face and loved to help others. Luis was always a hard worker, determined to make a wonderful and successful life for himself. Family was important to him. Weather you were a life long friend that turned into a brother, his mother, father, sisters, brother, niece, or nephew, aunt or uncle, or cousin, it didn’t matter, he loved you. He never judged other, and was quick to help those in need. Luis had many hobbies, if he wasn’t hard at work you could find him preparing one of his favorite meals(“Tacos anyone”) collecting and shooting guns, hanging with family or friends or just relaxing at home watching a movie. His life was way to short as he had much promise, but the Lord called him home. His soul will guide us with every coming day and we can learn something from his unconditional love and the way he lived his life. Survived by

I loved beeb, as did my daughter tiffany. Tiffany hasn't heard if this yet, but I know she is gonna be absolutely heartbroken when she finds out. I wish his funeral was just one week further down the road cuz then she would be able to go. Beeb was an old soul, a very special kid. He will be missed much, very much. Even though I'm old enough to be his mom, grandma even(I think, I'd have to do the math) the way he'd tell me I was a good kid, as if he was my elder, made me feel like just that, a good kid. Such a sad loss for the whole world. I wish this wouldn't have happened, I hope he knows how much he will be missed. I hope Keith is there to greet him, and keep him company. I feel that this was a spur of the moment decision, I wish he wouldn't have acted on it, I hope most of all he is at peace. Love you beeb, you good kid you.
