I just heard this sad news today, 2 years later. Wally was our neighbor. We missed he & Eleanor when they moved back to Washington. He always stopped to say hello. I remember when they got their puppy, he was rambunctious to say the least. Our condolences to you, Eleanor, from Keith & Mary in Ozark

Sarah Lanz sent a virtual gift in honor of Wally.

My favorite memory of Uncle eas the day he walked me down the aisle. He said Sarah Jane you pick a good one just like me. I always wondered if he meant himself or Auntie. I will always miss him calling Sarah Jane and the way he always tugged on my hair when he said goodbye. Love you Uncle

Sorry for your loss. He was a kind soul.

He told me he used to sing "old indian love songs" to me as a little girl. He carried a picture of me in his wallet for many, many years and then gifted it to Ken about ten years ago. What a sweet gesture!
