Ever since I could remember, my family and I always referred to Grandma Lut as "Mommy". To family as well as friends, she's famous for her hearty home-cooked meals and fresh baked goodies. I don't know how many people actually knew how late she stayed up or how early she woke up to make all the wonderful meals she made and still went to work. And she had abundant hugs and kisses, and insistent desire to spoil her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Whenever she came to visit us in the Philippines, she always had a doll for me. But Mommy could be feisty too. When I was being naughty (very rare), she did not hesitate to give me spanking. When we got to the US, I remember she'll pinch me and insist on cooking all my favorite foods :-). Mommy was very supportive and proud of her grandkids too. Whenever I called her, she used to tell me how proud she was of me for serving in the military. When I became a Nurse, she was so happy and proud too. Times spent at grandma's house were often marked by love, laughter, and contentment. She was old fashion in many ways and somewhat superstitious but she made me laugh and I learned a lot from her. Now that I'm older, I sometimes smile when I find myself doing/saying something that reminds me of something Mommy would have done/said. Mommy was often responsible for bringing the whole family together to include great Aunts and cousins. Every Sunday seems like Thanksgiving at her house. I'm grateful I was able to do the "Walk to End Alzheimers" as a special tribute for Mommy a year ago. I hope to do another one upon return from deployment in her memory. I will be running a 5K this Mother's Day in her memory. Mommy was such a source of joy for all who knew her. She left us beautiful memories to treasure through the years. Rest in peace Mommy. We love you forever.

My most memorable moments with TITA LUT: Learning Tagalog when I was 4-5 yrs old...even though the first words she taught me were 'bad' ones Learning how to be a good mommy by making me change dirty diapers and feed & rock baby Nestor to sleep when I was only 6 years old...Helping her in the kitchen when I was 6-7-8 yrs old (chopping up veggies for pancit & lumpia, rolling lumpia and bilo bilo balls for her ginataang) - still not half the cook she was! Learning NOT to smoke because she was the one who smoked with the cigarette backwards in her mouth (yuk!) Learning how to work hard by watching her get up early EVERY morning to cook for the family, or a customer, then going to a full time job and coming back home to cook again, clean some more and going to bed ONLY after we were all in the house safe...Showing me how to be a real BOSS and stand for what I believe by ALWAYS holding her own and NOT taking NO s*** from anyone! Thank you TITA LUT for taking care of the Sergio & Marina Ajeto Family, for always looking out for your siblings and their families...most of all for taking good care of my sister and I ....for protecting us, for loving us unconditionally, for molding us, for feeding us good food and for always having our backs! Most importantly for teaching us FAMILY FIRST and showing us ALL those values that create a solid family foundation...RIP my beloved Tita Lut ❤️ Your Legacy lives on!

The same way I was her Father Sergio's favorite - I know I was her favorite! She always took me places, cooked my favorite foods, spoiled and protected me! I will never forget how much of an impact she had on my childhood years and how much she loved me and my daughter Demaria! My Tita Lut Will Always be Remembered and Never Forgotten! 🙏
