Fun memory, Karla worked at the Auburn office of Fidelity, my Windermere office was across the street, Carlana her girlfriend and I were in same office, they invited me to go to Reno with them, I was game... so off we went 4 day vaca, I told them I was hitting the hay at 9:30 in evening, they said OK but don't wake us up early. The next morning I got up 6 went to gym at hotel, worked out for about an hour, back to room ordered a continental breakfast coffee for 3 orange juice for 3 , 8 am knocked on door that seperated our rooms, took awhile but they finally answered mumbling grumbling, they had gone to bed at 3-3:30 am.. LOL they stayed up had breakfast and off we went to hit machines again. I always had so much fun with her, she taught me so much my early years in Real Estate. I will miss her a lot. Robbin Ott

I worked with Karla at Fidelity National Title in Tacoma, WA. One of my favorite memories of her is going to her with a signed BECU doc package and asking her what I needed to do with it now?!? Her response was "well, did you read the instructions we've sent out"? Um, no, I replied. She responded with rolling her eyes, extending her hand and saying "give me the da^^# package, I'll set it up for you". I LOVED that about her! She was tough on the outside, but marsh mellows on the inside. We miss you Karla. See you on the other side. :-) xxoo
