So many years and so many memories pass through my mind remembering my beautiful cousin Jackie. We grew up together in our younger years sharing Halloween nights "trick or treating" with her and my sister Sandra. She and Jackie were very close and did a lot together as young girls and I am hoping they are together again in heaven whispering their secrets to each other as they did here on earth! You were loved Jackie and you will be missed!

From my earliest memories Aunt Jackie was a woman of many talents. She was a self taught master of knitting, extraordinary green thumb (due to a secret elixer that ran everyone out of the house) and excellant home maker. She could stretch a dollar and a meal. She was my safe place growing up. She welcomed me always! I loved being with her and her family. She will be missed always, Rest in peace Aunt Jackie! Love Debbie
