Hanako Moody

MAR 13, 1926 - FEB 25, 2019

Hanako Suzuki Moody, 92, passed away at her home in University Place on February 25, 2019. She was born in Kawasaki, Japan on March 12, 1926. She was preceded in death by her parents, Masayoshi Suzuki and Yoshi Hara; her sister, Kinu Whipple and her brothers.

Hanako came to the U.S. in 1951. She proudly became a citizen in 1999. She met her devoted husband of 45 years, Dallas Ward Moody, at a dance. Their love at first sight continued to blossom and they were married October 31, 1973.

Hanako was a loving wife, mother and grandmother. Her extended family and friends brought her joy. She was a seamstress, avid gardener, cook, sports fan and a lover of dogs. Hanako was a kind and caring person. Armed with her feisty attitude, determination and strength, she faced and conquered many challenges. Her infectious smile and sense of humor will remain in our hearts forever.

Hanako is survived by her husband, Dallas W. Moody; son, Willard (Woody) Wooten; daughter, Rose (Steve) Metzker; daughter, Diane (Dominique) Easter; daughter, Kay (Duane) Conn; son, Dexter (Jeanie) Moody; grandchildren Matt Geisreiter, Kim Geisreiter, Jesiah Metzker, Danielle (Scott) Rough, Ashley (Marshall) Perkins, Ricky (Brittany) Armstrong, Ashley Conn, Kayla Moody, Patricia (Travis) Smith and Justin Easter. She also leaves behind many great-grandchildren, extended family and dear friends.

I feel so privileged to have gotten to spend a week with Granna Hanna. In the time that I got to spend with her we had such a wonderful time together. She was such a sweet sweet lady. She was a very caring and kind-hearted person. One of the things I can remember is her contagious smile and how she always made me laugh. She will be missed so much. May you rest in peace!
