Whatever we did together Debbie always approached with great enthusiasm, whether a canoe trip or a movie her excitement was contagious. We shared many adventures and talked about sharing many more. I will miss teasing her and her good nature, her friendship can't be replaced.

It is so hard to believe that Debbie is gone and with us only in our memories. But what great memories I have of her over the last forty-to years! Debbie was always laughing and living life to the fullest, whether going to baseball games, checking out new restaurants, talking on the phone or just sitting around the house, I always knew we would have a good time and a lively conversation. My heart goes out to our good friend Paul and all that are sharing the loss of our Debbie, one of the most loving person I have ever known.

In the short time I knew her, Deb demonstrated perseverance and strength - always wanting to work hard to get stronger despite not feeling well. It was truly a pleasure to work with both Deb and Paul.
