I will remember always making sure when at his house us kids were having fun and not bored. From playing croquet in the back yard at house in parkland to setting up the computer to play games why mom watched the motel and of course uncle jerry saving me big boxes to play in and sleep in so I had a fort in the front room to lay in and watch movies. We all know uncle jerry had any movie you could ever want to see. He will be greatly missed.

Carol and her husband Don are very sad about her brothers passing. We are thinking about what everyone is going through, and our condolences to his wife Diana, and his children.

We have many fond memories of doing things, and going places with them...Don and Carol Gross
