DOROTHY was one of my favorite people in this entire world. She was my mothers (Violet Tess) little sister. When i was just a little whipper snapper, she used to haul me around like her little brother. We had many fun days together. I was a ring bearer at Her and Davids wedding. I have many fond memories of her and her family. We spent many summer days at the Lakewood Fireman's picnics As my Dad(Harvey Tess) and Big David Buck ,both worked at the fire dept in lakewoodAs an adult , I still loved to stop by to visit and talk over the old times with her and uncle david.I will miss both of them dearly.RIP.Sincerely Terry M.
