Kim Hue Thi Hoang

FEB 12, 1944 - DEC 7, 2019

Mrs. Hue Kim Thi Hoang was born in 1944 in Thua Thien Hue, Vietnam. Her father was Mr. Ha Hoang and Mrs. Thuong Thi Doan. She has four siblings, three in Vietnam and one in the United States.

When she was young, she studied very well. At the age of 22, while she is studying in Hue University, she met and married Mr. Vinh Cong Nguyen. In 1980, Mr. Vinh Cong Nguyen passed away. In 1981, she and her six children migrated to the south and lived in Saigon.

In 2006, she came to the United States to settle abroad and lived in Tacoma, WA. She specifically has three sons and three daughters. Thus, there are 22 people in her big family which includes her daughter-in-law, son-in-law, and grandchildren.

Mrs. Hue Hoang was a happy and gentle person. She fulfilled her duties as a wife and a mother and wholeheartedly worried for her family. When she still lived in Vietnam, she loved helping the poor and those in need.

For the past three years, her health has been weak. Despite the care of her children, on December 7th, 2019, she drew her last breath at her home at 5 PM. Particularly, she lived to be seventy-five years old.

Her death is a great loss for her family. In the moment of seeing her off to the paradise, we want to send her our prays for her freedom in the paradise and wish her to return to the area of Gautama Buddha.
