Wanda Claudine Bounds

MAY 10, 1930 - APR 14, 2020

Wanda C. Bounds May 10, 1930 - April 14, 2020

Wanda passed peacefully on April 14, 2020. Wanda was a loving and devoted wife and mother. She was the most considerate, selfless person we have ever known. She consistently put her family first, rarely ever thinking of herself. She was the bedrock of our family from whom we all gathered our strength. We are blessed to have had her in our lives and we will miss her deeply.

She was preceded in death by Jim, her loving husband of 46 years. Survivors include daughters, Barbara Hadland (Gary), Cathie Penrose (Jack), Becky Thompson, and Sandy Bounds (Joe): grandchildren Erik, Kristen, and Ryan Hadland, Alex Mowre and great grandson Fox Mowre.

Wanda, one of thirteen children, was born in Texas to James and Lucille Easterling. Surviving siblings include Ginny, Ruth, Peggy, Ruby, Mattie, Jack, and Janie.

A special thank you to the caring staff at Bridgeport Place Assisted Living.

The family will plan a memorial at a later time.

Please consider a donation to the American Cancer Society in lieu of flowers.

Wanda was a supportive and cheerful client of mine for 20 years. Charming, with a beautiful smile and never ever the type to complain. She was very loyal to me even as my bank failed in the big economic downturn of 2008/2009. I think of her often as I drive home to my house and pass her home in the same neighborhood. Wanda, rest in peace.-Magnus

When I think of Wanda Claudine I smile, they broke the mold when she drifted into this world so many years ago. When I close my eyes I can still hear her voice, that's sweet Texas accent. Such a classy lady, she got dressed up to go to the grocery store, hair always perfect meticulous clothes a true charming lady. I remember thinking how stoic she was when her sweet Jimmy passed away, always thinking about her girls and family never herself. I will cherish the time I spent with her, she'll be greatly missed. With love, Christopher Pierone
