Helen was a seriously amazing woman. I got to know her as a next door neighbor. I have memories of her being extremely active and on the go constantly. She really lived with a large footprint. I remember the sound of her violin as she rehearsed with an open window. She stayed busy: Taking care of Peggy, hosting get togethers at the house, shopping, cooking, creative endeavors, caring for her adult kids and "Johnny", planning travel vacations, ski trips, and there was always boating. I was blessed to know her. It hurts to have to say goodbye and I'm thinking of you all. -Dan Engell
