Helen Y. Boukal

MAY 17, 1925 - NOV 3, 2020

Helen was born 5-17-1925 and entered heaven 11-3-2020 after attaining the age of 95. Helen was a quiet and refined lady who was raised in Gig Harbor. In 1947

she married Edward Boukal and spent the rest of her life in Tacoma.

Helen belonged to the Tacoma Oregon Society, the Teddy Bear Club, was a member of St. Ann's Catholic Church and the seniors club.

Helen made hundreds of teddy bears and had a love for each one. She spent many hours working in her yard with a dog by her side, her last being a Shih-tzu named Mayling.

Helen is survived by several nieces and a nephew. She is preceded in death by her parents, husband Edward and brother Len.

Helen always said she never learned to drive a car because girls didn't do that when she grew up, only boys did it.
