Diane Lynn Brown

APR 17, 1965 - JUN 13, 2021

Diane Brown was born on April 7th, 1965 to Harley Brown & Ellen Bruhn. She was the youngest of four children: Greg, Linda, & Ruth. She grew up on the family farm in Enumclaw as a young child where she loved playing with her pony, Peanut. She moved to Lakewood, WA as a young teenager, and attended Lochburn Jr. High and graduated from Clover Park High School. Diane lived most of her life in Tacoma, WA and worked for over 30 years in the jewelry industry, where she developed lifelong friendships.

She is survived by her three children: Danny, Rachel, & Lindsey. They were her pride and joy. Diane lived for her trips to the beach with family. It was her calming place.

“Life takes you down many paths, but my favorite ones lead to the beach.”

A service will be held on Wednesday, June 23rd at 11am at Mountain View Cemetery, Aspen Chapel. Reception to follow at Narrows Brewing Co. (ages 21 and over).

I was fortunate to meet Diane in 1982. Her dad and I enjoyed attending her cheerleading events and watching her drive her VW bugs. He loved her so much and liked to call her Bo (short for boll weevil). She gave us 3 wonderful grandchildren and excelled in her jewelry store career. She always had a wonderful positive attitude regardless of the circumstances. I will miss her and her unique laugh very much. Sending love to her children. Nancy Brown

Diane was a wonderful friend. Memories of her will last forever. We use to dress up every year for Halloween. Our children were horrified and embarrassed. I personally thought we looked great! I will remember our long talks on the phone at night. No matter what was going on in our lives good or bad we would always end up laughing. She was a kind soul and the best friend I could ever ask for. I love you Diane. Until we meet again. Deena Lott

Diane's laughter was infectious. She was such a beautiful person. I was always so jealous of her shape. It was perfect as was she. We grew up together in our later teenage years and continued to be friends. She will be missed
