Oh Chris where do I begin. First off you are my cousin whether we were blood or not. I grew up looking up to you, you were the oldest of the bunch. You touched so many hearts. You were loved. After Richie passed away I should have tried harder to keep the family together. I know you were in pain, and you were ready to go. So many people are broken hearted, myself being one of them. But I know your at peace now, probably up there kicking back with Richie and GMA Rose and Grandpa Bill and the rest of the family of course. Give them love for me. I will miss you and cherish my childhood memories. Until we see each other again, my dear cousin. I love and miss you now, forever and always. Your cousin Angela Tuskey
