I was just a Facebook friend, I found out he passed ... We had similar tastes and humor ~I have missed our political conversations and serious life-sharing discussions. Though we never met in the Real World, He has left a void nonetheless, and I genuinely miss his presence in my world. Maybe we will hang in our next life..til then, be at peace. love, Bleumoon

Frank is my little cousin on Delores side. We grow up together along with his brothers. I have many good memories. Some of my good memories were our travels to Florida. Frank was little and he was a good swimmer. He was good in martial arts young. Kept us all busy. I remember our vacation to Hawaii those were good memories. One particular moment that was special was at a family reunion we had in Sacramento for one of our aunts or something, and Frank got up on stage with Tony Sr. He performed a kick, he had his dad put 3 cigarettes in his mouth, not lit, and Frank kick it out of his mouth without kicking him in the face. Really awesome. I loved his Facebook posts. I'm going to miss that. So many people family and friends are going to miss him. You are in a beautiful peaceful place now Frank. God bless Delores and Tony Sr. Kenny Nagel and Tony Jr. R.I.P. now little cousin. I love you and will miss you. I will treasure all the memories forever. Until we meet again.
