On my mom's (Helen Sampson) 80th birthday, Mary was assigned the duty of getting my mom to the surprise party. We had all heard alot about Mary but many of the family had not met her. She arrived at my mom's house knowing that they would be picked up in a limo (my mom had no idea about that). So when the limo driver came to the door my mom was hurriedly trying to get ready. My mom opened the door and said "I don't have time for salesmen" and slammed the door. Mary opened the door and saw the stunned driver standing there and the limo out front. Thank goodness Mary was there or my mom would have missed her own birthday :). We all cracked up when they arrived and Mary told us the story. The driver got a very good tip. :)

Aunt Mary will be missed. I remember so many camping trips and her smile and laugh! I got to fish with my Uncle John and sit at the campsite and talk with my Aunt Mary. She lives to dance and loved the Eagles. Sending my condolences 🙏❤️

I say this letter and thought it might be to us from Mary. Dear my beloved, "Life is not about waiting for the storm to pass, it is about learning to dance in the rain. So I know you brought your dancing shoes, because now is your time to open your soul and let the rain cleanse you. Allow your arms to stretch open let yourself fly with the wind. And do not worry, because you are not alone. Dancing takes two people. As your partner I promise to be here for you. Let my words pick you up when you are down. I will think of you always, guiding your feet into a rhythm of courage. All you have to do is have faith and spin with the music. So I ask you... May I have this dance?"
