Sharbra and Family, I am still shocked and heartbroken. He was such a big brother to me and will cherish the talks, laughs and hangouts at your place. Brother was such a chill person and so wise in many ways. When we had conversations whether it be on what was going on with the us, the world, our children, relationships and just life. It's been 18 years since I have been around the family and treasure you all in my life. My brother go rest in peace and until we meet again. Love you always, June
