To Bobby's family. I just heard of his passing. We spent a lot of time as kids fishing. It hit me hard to see it. I am truly sorry for your loss. Mike Mullens.

This is such a great loss to everyone. Rob was my rock, the whole time I was secretary of the Double Dozen League, he supported me and helped me. Even before that we had kids about the same age so we could laugh and cry over different situations. He and Brenda were so close, I would run into them at a casino and they would be playing one machine between the two of them, who does that! I know you are in a better place Rob but you will be dearly missed here on Earth. God Bless!
