Leonard what can I say? I have loved you since Archie (my husband) introduced us. You and Margret accepted and loved me. You knew when I needed you to call and helped me through difficult times. I am going to miss your calls and the way you could make me smile. I know you were ready to join Margret and you are both happy again. God Bless you!

Len was my Brother by marriage to my sister, Margaret. I call him Brother and was blessed to get to know him as I got older. Len was unfailingly honest and joyfully giving of himself. He enjoyed helping others. After Margaret passed Len was blessed with a gift we believe she sent him. A little lost dog with the cutest monkey face was found and Len gave him a home. They were best buddies until Len went Home to our Lord. I like to believe that all three of them are now in Heaven having a wonderful reunion. I miss you Len, but am happy you are once again with Margaret!
