Joe E. Webb Jr.

MAR 29, 1952 - JAN 16, 2025

Joe E. Webb Jr., born on March 29, 1952, passed away peacefully at the age of 72. A devoted husband, father, brother, uncle and friend, Joe's life was marked by dedication to his family, his country, and his community.

Joe proudly served 25 years in the United States Air Force, retiring in 1996 with honor and distinction as a Senior Master Sergeant. Following his military service, he continued to serve the nation in various contracting positions before establishing a lasting legacy at the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), where he was widely known for his dedication and commitment.

He is survived by his loving wife, Ertha Webb; his three children, Tonya Webb, Cassandra McElvine, and Nicholas Webb; and his siblings, Ira Webb, Della Thomas, and Helen Webb. Joe is preceded in death by his parents, Joe and Isabella Webb, his brothers Bobby Webb, Billy Webb, and Robert Webb, and his sisters Josephine "Joyce" Webb, Francis "Kate" Saffore, and Patricia "Penny" Webb.

A quote that resonates with Joe's enduring spirit: "Grief never ends, but it changes. It's a passage, not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith. It is the price of love." - Unknown.

It's a year late that I'm receiving this obituary, however please accept my deepest condolences.I was stationed with Joe in the Netherlands. When I was deployed to the Middle East the boots that they gave me were 2 sizes smaller than I wore. Joe who was also deployed sent me a pair of the correct size a few days later after I told him my feet were in pain. I never forgot him for that. May God have mercy on his sole.

Thinking back on when we used to work together, I was sad when we moved to electronic documents a few years ago. As he no longer could say they lost the paper copies, which was always a good excuse for me to bring him new paper copies and chat about his kids' latest adventures / misadventures. And I always looked forward to him and Rick getting into small arguments too, they would just argue about anything/everything and then continue work as if nothing. Respectfully, Mr. Francisco J. I was deeply saddened when I heard about the passing of Joe. Although I have known him for only a short time as a colleague, I feel incredibly fortunate to have worked with him. From the moment I joined the team in Bothell, Joe welcomed me with warmth and kindness, offering both respect and encouragement. His calm, well-balanced demeanor brought a sense of peace and balance to our workplace, and his leadership was truly invaluable.Joe's contributions to the FEMA Acquisitions Team are unparalleled. His legacy as the longest consecutively employed Contracting Officer at FEMA is a testament to his dedication and expertise, and he has become a legend among our team. We, the Contracting Team in Bothell, looked up to him not only for his professional accomplishments but also for the way he led with compassion, integrity, and respect.It was clear that Joe cherished his family, and I hope you find comfort in knowing how deeply he was loved by so many of us here at FEMA. His wisdom, guidance, and presence will be greatly missed, and his impact on all of us will be felt for years to come.My heart goes out to you during this incredibly difficult time. Please know that we share in your grief, and we take solace in knowing Joe is in good hands in his next phase.With my deepest sympathy,Sandy Shanks
