I met Jinger when was looking to buy a house in October of 2020. I instantly loved her and her energy. I am so grateful that even after we closed, she forced me to be her friend. I think she could tell that I needed her. She adopted me and my kids, having them call her Auntie Jinger. To me, she felt like an older sister that always had amazing advice or a sympathetic ear. She was Love in human form. My kids and I were lucky enough to see her as Dolly and in Cinderella. For week we would talk about her amazing performances and hilarious facial expressions while on stage. I pray that she knew how much her and her family have meant to me. She was the truest example of the love and kindness that we should all share with each other. I hope that I may use her memory to be the person she wanted me to be. Jess

I love the simple memory of one of our big family Lake Chelan trips, probably 1998. You and Rick were newlyweds and I was high school. Always thought you and Rick were so cool and we had so much fun, swam all day and laid out in the open field at night all talking and laughing. You were always happy to see me and that felt so good. Laughter was always in abundance with you. Also remember the season where you babysat Jaden for me while you already had Marshall and Mason, it was a full house of little ones. I loved seeing you as Dolly, that was amazing! You in the red dress 🍷 Also neat seeing you do that play with Monica ❤️ ✨ Holiday cousin "performances" I use loosely lol, you directed and we all loved being a part of it.

Sister-cousin, that's how I will remember you Jinger. So many precious memories together over the years, sharing our lives in all their ups and downs, walking with the Lord and each other through it all. Your bright, bubbly, and outrageously comedic presence will be deeply missed. Your legacy of love, faith and family will remain in my heart and you will not be forgotten. We will see each other again!
