Leilani "Lani" J. Jones

MAY 8, 1958 - MAR 21, 2026

Leilani "Lani" J. Jones, age 67, of Tacoma, Washington, went home to be with the Lord on March 21, 2026. After a sudden illness, she fought courageously, and the Lord brought her home.

She was born on May 8, 1958, in Tacoma, Washington, and spent her life caring deeply for her family, her friends, and her church community.

She is survived by her children: Chris Jones (Sonia), BJ Jones (Melissa), Amanda Price (Matthew), and her bonus daughter Ann Lee Womack (Chris); her grandchildren Savannah George, Cory Jones, Cayla Jones, Nathan Jones, and Cayden Jones; and her great-grandchildren Journey Jacroux and Acelynn Jones.

She was preceded in death by her father, Robert Hagen, and her brother, Tony Hagen.

Her faith was the foundation of her life, and she lived with a quiet strength, a generous heart, and a deep love for others. She will be remembered for her kindness, her humor, and the way she made everyone feel welcome.

A celebration of her life will be held at Victory Outreach Seattle, 10821 1st Ave S., Seattle, WA, 98168 on April 9 at 11:00 AM.

For those whose lives she touched—through friendship, family, or even a brief moment of kindness—we would be honored to have you join us as we celebrate her life.

Well as I sit here not able to sleep thinking about my mom I have so many memories but one great one was my birthday I believe I was turning 7 or 8 years old and she did everything that she could to make sure I had a great day and she even got me a cookie monster cake I have no idea why that particular cake is the most memorable and vivid birthday cake I had gotten but I know she did everything that she could to make sure I had that cake lol she was awesome. I LOVE YOU MOM AND I MISS YOU SO MUCH ALREADY

Hotel Olympus posted:

I was only very briefly a part of Leilani's life as the new manager in her apartment building, but my few interactions with Leilani were wonderfully kind and welcoming to me as the new manager. May her family find peace during this difficult time.
