It is hard to believe sometimes that she is really gone. She was a great friend and comfort when I was caring for Ila in her last days. I will always remember her concern and caring for Ila. She would work all week, and drive 5+ hours to come visit and "work" to help me care for Ila and her Dad and help him keep the house up while Ila was so sick. She would sometimes arrive so tired from her busy week, but would not hear of sitting down a minute to rest, she just wanted to know what we needed help with. Heaven will have a busy, caring, loving angel among them..but then I expect they already know that. We miss you Dianna...##imported-begin##Dan & Ina##imported-end##

It was my pleasure working with Dianna in Tacoma. When the Tacoma office closed, Dianna and I went to different locations. We both commuted to Seattle, so when we happen to meet on the bus we would do all our catching up. Dianna touch my heart and many others. She will be missed.With deepest sympathy,Rhonda Hayes##imported-begin##Rhonda Hayes##imported-end##

A deeply caring and sincere person, a wonderful colleague and precious friend, Diana will always be remembered. My hope and prayer is that all of her loved ones will know the peace that The Heavenly Father gives, even in sad times. And know, too, that Diana left a gift of life and a legacy of love. As Dianna's nephew I have always had happy memories of Aunt Dianna. I especially remember the fun times at her home when I was little, and her kindness and thoughtfulness when she came to my high school graduation in Missouri. She was fun to be around and was never short on hugs to give. We all will truly miss her. May God bring her peace and everlasting happiness.
