Grandpa, We will always be thinking of you. Remembering having dixie cups after hamburger dinners on Saturday nights, you sitting in the big chair with a beer watching the ball game, or the honking of the horn and back-up lights on the truck and trailer...these are things that we will pass on for generations to come. We will always love you and know that you are now with Grandma up in heaven, headed in the Prowler to Reno to fill up a bag of change...Love Mike and Liza##imported-begin##Mike and Liza Safford##imported-end##
