We are the three remaining cousin's of Albert on his father Alden's side of the family. Whenever Marge and Al would travel this way, on their trips the the service reunions, they would give us a call so we could see them. We never did get to Washington, but he meant a lot to us. Since our uncle was Albert, our cousin was always to us 'Little Al'. I was sorry to learn of the passing away of Al Hassell. It is always hard at time like this, but know this Al is in a better place. He will forever be young and be with the people he has loved. He and Marge will watch those of us left here on earth and watch over us and guide us to do what is right.##imported-begin##James K. McAdams##imported-end##
