Gary Wayne Terwilliger

MAY 28, 2004

A life cut short,.... Gary joined his mom in heaven after a tragic accident at home. Gary graduated from Lincoln High School in 1979. He served in the US Army for 4 years, making the rank of Sgt. He then worked civil service at Ft. Lewis as a Blackhawk Helicopter mechanic; and recently in the computer shop when the Blackhawk program ended. Missing him are his dad Roger Terwilliger; wife Debbie; children Christina, Bobbi-Jo, and Joey; sisters Tracy and Cheryl and brother-in-law Dan (AKA "Stan"); as well as many other relatives and friends. He will be deeply missed for his ability to make us laugh, his brilliance, his giving spirit and his generous heart. Until we meet again, we'll cherish the precious time we had and remember him well. Services at 12 noon, Friday, June 4, 2004 in the Mt. View Celebration of Life Center.

A year, a whole year has gone by. Selfishly I ask again, please stay near me my brother, my friend. Time has not worn down the the happy memories I have, or the love in my heart that is yours. But today, I miss you more than ever. Stay close, Bro. Keep a watch on us down here. I know you can, and I know you will. I love you! I miss you so much. Peace be yours. Now send me some!###imported-begin###Cheryl###imported-end###

Dear Debbie: My sincerest sympathy goes out to you and your family. I was Gary's supervisor at the aircraft facility. Gary's was famous for his highest quality of work and dedication. Without reservation, Gary was the best mechanic but more importantly he was a great person. Sincerely, Douglas L. Garst###imported-begin###Douglas L. Garst###imported-end###

Gary is my brother, and on behalf of him and his family, I'd like to thank all of his friends for checking in on him, and for all the wonderful words of encouragement and support. Some of the messages here are quite surprising - childhood friends with everlasting memories, and co-workers who truly enjoyed him being around; so many people who care. I have a lifetime of wonderful memories of him and I thank God for those. Of all the families in the world, the one I got to be a part of has got to be one of the best God ever made. I was truly blessed having him for my big brother, and I'll miss him eternally, but I'll take comfort in the memories of all the wonderful, silly, fun and inspiring times I had with him. Please keep his family in the forefront of your prayers. I promise I will help them get through life knowing Gary. A guy who meant so much to so many never really dies. His legacy will live on.##imported-begin##Cheryl D'Andrea (sister)##imported-end##

To Gary's family,I give you my deepest condolences, at this very sad time in your lives.There is a time, and a purpose for every season of our life. Sometimes we may not understand it, but if we put our full trust in God, he will carry us through times like this, and turn the light on at the end of the tunnel, when all we see is darkness.Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all.Respectfully yours,Lynda Dorris##imported-begin##Lynda Dorris##imported-end##

Gary will be missed at work, his smile was always a bright spot in the day. Once, I told him he was crazy for starting over again with a family. He just beamed and said I was wrong; his kids kept him young. Hold tight to the many happy memories that you have of Gary. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Linda Robinson##imported-end##

Gary, I lost you as my brother years ago; and I have been sad. Now; the world has lost you, and that is nothing short of a tragedy. Your beautiful smile was a direct reflection of your beautiful heart. Sure, you were a "crazy mixed up kid" but dammit, you had so much love inside you. I miss everything about you, but mostly I miss your passionate personality. I will continue with each day missing you. Debbie, Christina, and the rest of the entire Terwilliger family "ditto" ditto.##imported-begin##Chris##imported-end##

As I walked by your office I see your bicycle sitting idle, the one you were always riding as you greeted me on most days. The thought of Gary no longer being there saddens me greatly, but knowing Gary, I know he's in a place most of us hope we can make it to. To Debbie, his family and father Roger my heart goes out to all of you for your loss. Gary's friendship, caring attitude and humor will be greatly missed by many at work..
