Dale Dymont Whitney

APR 18, 1914 - JUL 13, 2004

Dale (Bill) Dymont Whitney Dale Dymont (Bill) Whitney died Tuesday, July 13, 2004, at home after a short illness. Born April 18, 1914, in Tacoma to Dale Derrington and Stella Dymont Whitney. He is survived by his wife of 67 years, Alta Bertha Whitney; 4 children, Maurice F. (Kaye); Dennis (Suzy); Duane (Sandra); and LoRene Whitney; 19 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren. A Latter-day Saint, he served in the High Priest Group and was a great home teacher. He was an Army Veteran and worked as a sheet metal journeyman. He was very handy and could fix almost anything. He saved everything. His family is still amazed with his ingenuity. Dad loved music and loved to sing and play the drums. He was an avid beach-comber, and rock hound who loved to be outdoors. He was unabashedly proud of his children and his grandchildren. Funeral Services at 2pm on Saturday July 17 at LDS Chapel, 2455 South 78th , Tacoma. Viewing prior to service at 1:00pm.

My condolences to Mr Whitney's wife and family. I met him when he visited his son Dennis and my daughter Susy. I remember we each would name a song and see if the other knew it. We always did. He seemed a very happy outgoing man who loved his family and even the small things in life. I am so sorry for your loss. Sincerely, Jewel(Lou)Rathjen##imported-begin##Jewel Rathjen##imported-end##

I am the Respite Care Worker for the Witney's and I first came on to help with Alta never thinking that Dale would be needed care also. But when I took over it didn't last long because GOD called him and it was time for him to go. I remember he talked to me about "shop" guy stuff but that was ok, I learned a little about cars, fishing etc... he would also talk about when he was just a boy and the things he used to do. And he would sing those old timer songs to me. He was a very interesting man till the day he passed. I am so sorry for the ones he left behind. The family is a very very close family, I don't see that everyday with my other clients. They have a bond of love for each other and I know you guys are going to miss him terriably. I am so very very sorry for your loss he is going to be missed... Love you all... Pam.##imported-begin##Pam Borgos##imported-end##
