Grandpa I will always remember the special times we had together. Like when we played hi-ho cherrio and checkers and you let me win and taught me specific moves. It was always fun to see you at the mall. I love you and know you are in a better place. I am Linda's daughter.##imported-begin##Kennedy##imported-end##

I only had the opportunity to meet my Uncle Arbra once, but I loved him dearly. Linda, I did meet you, also and I still remember how warm and sweet you were. I never said "thank you" for that lovely sweatshirt you left in the top of my closet as a gift. Thanks. I am saddened by our loss and will keep the family in my prayers. My brother, Aubrey Dan was the first of Nine(9), born to our parents, John & Blanch Ennis, Newton of Alexandria, Louisiana. He was a good decent and honorable man, A proud man who had great love and admiration for his family, and respect for his fellowman. He led the way for us. We loved him dearly. Only two weeks ago, My wife, Joyrice and I had the opportunity to express our deep love to/for He and his loving wife, Tsutae (Sty), and they likewise for us. He will surely be missed. Peace, Happiness, & goodwill to each and every one of his family in Washington and elsewhere. We love you and may God Bless and keep us all safe and well . My love and prayers go out to my uncle's family and close friends. It weighs in my heart that I was not able to spend time with him before his "home-going," but I am comforted in knowing that his spirit lives on through his children, my cousins, and through the memories we all share of him. God Bless. -snm##imported-begin##Shalonda Newton-Matthews##imported-end##

This is a hard path to walk down and I am so sorry for your loss. The older I get the more I can see God's plan for my life and I'm reminded to live everyday the best that I can. So it goes for all of us but it gets hard sometimes. If you believe like I do, you know that your father isn't far away - he's closer than you know and feeling better than he ever has. Please take care and know that I love you and let me know if you need anything.##imported-begin##Vickie Nunn##imported-end##
