Roman Brendan Smith

MAY 19, 1981 - JUL 12, 2005

Roman bounced into this world on May 19, 1981 and immediately the world was a better place. He died in a tragic motorcycle accident on July 12, 2005 doing what he loved most. He was a force to be reckoned with, fun, trustworthy, and sassy. Roman touched the heart of everyone he met; he was "The Man!!" He is survived by many friends and relatives, including mother Peggy Cleary Tonnema, father Frank Smith (Carla), brothers Pete, Kyle, and Jeremy, and sister Delaney. He had many loving aunts, uncles, cousins (big and small), grandparents Pat and Mollie Cleary and Kay Jurun, and the love of his life, Tiffany. We hope all of his many friends and relatives will join us for a celebration of his life at 11:00 AM Wednesday July 20, 2005 at Mountain View Funeral Home.

Frank, Carla, Jeremy and Delaney: I have thought all week about what to say to help, but there is nothing. I am so sorry for the loss you are experiencing. My heart aches in the knowledge of how lonely you all will be missing Roman. Remember, though, that he is but a thought away and he ALWAYS resides in your hearts. You will see him and hear him and be reminded of him in many different ways. Sometimes those ways will remind you of your pain at his loss and sometimes they will bring joy, but he shall never be gone as long as you allow your memories to be a part of your life. Peggy, Pete and family, I know how hard this is for you and can only wish I could take the pain away, and the only thing I can do is be here for you. As I read what others have written I know this for sure; Roman is and will always be a true reflection of the people he surrounded himself with, his family. My memory will always be running into Roman at his places of employment and everytime I saw him I noticed that "sunshine smile" that always warmed my heart. I remember going to watch "Titanic" and Roman and the Rest of our small double date group was rendered to sit on the floor, we could not stop laughing. We all graduated high school,lost comm.Then reunited again, his friend was getting married. We were unsure, when we looked at each other,if we were looking at the same person we knew in high school.We kept in contact ever since then, he told me about his back-packing days and how he missed them so, all the wild things he went through in his time in the Air Force. I told him that he was crazy ,when he asked me to go along with him. We just laughed.We got kicked out of the bar,we talked til it closed,catching up on old times. He told me how he found someone he loved and was glad to have in his life. He told me about the Race in L.A. he was very excited,and that we should def. get together someday again soon.Roman you will always be in my heart and prayers,I thank the maker for allowing us to share the laughs we shared together. Roman and I were childhood friends. We grew up in the North End a block away from each other. We went to St. Pat's together. We spent countless hours in the "gultch" near our home building forts and riding the "sand hill". As we both grew our lives went in seperate directions. Roman served his country proudly in the military and I went into EMS. We both took on jobs that required us to see things that others should not. On the far too few occasions that Roman and I would get back together, we would revisit the times when things were much more innocent and simple. I was fortunate to see Roman in Monterey the weekend before he was lost. It was just like old times and we were little kids again. That feeling lasted for two days until I was snapped back to reality, by the crushing news that my childhood friend was gone. Roman was one of those people who when you saw him or thought about him an instant smile came to your face. Now we must remember all the joy Roman brought to this world, because it will remain even if he has moved on. I do believe that he is someplace better now, and I know that he will check in on us from time to time.Friends for all of time,Brendan##imported-begin##Brendan Joseph Murphy##imported-end##

I got to see Roman grow from a gawky little boy to a graceful, kind young man. We'll all think of him every day with sad hearts, but also with many memories of his sweet & loving spirit, and with gratitude that his life blessed our world. I miss you, Roman.##imported-begin##(Auntie) Pat Tonnema##imported-end##

We loved you simply because of who you were and loved you more for what you became. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Many thoughts & tears for all who miss & love Roman (especially his parents & brothers & sister & my dearest Peggy) But for everyone...everyone...every one of his relatives & friends who are sad & hurting right now.Roman, if you can see this...if you can see them...if there really is a better place than earth...and you have found it...please try to find a way to let them know...so they can feel better. You are a wonderful young man & you are surely missed.Love Angie Buns###imported-begin###Angie Buns###imported-end###

Dear Family of Roman,Please accept our deepest regret at your loss of Roman. I recognized a "Cleary" face before I even saw his name! What a tragedy.It's been less than a year since we lost our Leta Jane, and the sadness is starting to lessen, but will never be gone.Our prayers are with all of you, for God to help you mend your broken hearts.Love, Markay & Tony Plastino###imported-begin###markay & tony###imported-end###

I ask my self why I ride on news of another riders life comming to an early end. The way the seasons going it seems to be the summers trend. I shiver before I answer a call and think have I lost another friend. If the fallen ones could speak what wisdom would they lend. If they could write what would the words say. Would the words tell us "Ride on brother" or "Brother run away". In this game of life I know little of what happens in the end. Rest your soul well knowing friend after all is said in done we'll ride together again. Written by C.T.K. for Roman a fallen friend###imported-begin###Chas T. Kirkham###imported-end###
