To Dysie's family, I am so very sorry for the loss of this wonderful women and teacher. My family and I met her in 1981 when my daughter started Headstart at Willard Elementary. We kept in touch with her for awhile after, but unfortunately lost touch with her since then. Even though we haven't been in touch as of late,I could never forget her. Dysie was one of the most inspiring people that I have had the precious opportunity to know. My daughter is a college graduate, wife & mother now, and if it weren't for this lovely lady's (Dysie)involvement and kind support,we may have missed out on what evolved into an excellant education for my girl. So to her family, our sincere sympathy for your loss. To Dysie...you've always been an angel and now you are one in heaven. You will never be forgotten. In our thoughts and prayers eternally, Kari.###imported-begin###Kari Reid###imported-end###
