Calvin Eugene Pease

JUL 4, 1955 - DEC 16, 2005

Calvin Eugene Pease passed away unexpectedly at home on Friday, December 16, 2005, of heart failure. He was born July 4, 1955, in La Jolla, California. While Tacoma was his home for most of his life, he spent part of his youth in Steilacoom. For the past 14 years, he faithfully served customers at the 96th Street Napa Auto Parts store. His kind and caring demeanor touched all who came to know him, his colleagues, customers, and most of all his loving family. Calvin had an easygoing kindness about him that was apparent to all who knew and loved him. Along with his many friends and his treasured dogs and cats, he was happiest spending time with his family: his love of eleven years, Chris Hibbard, her daughter, Sheri Hibbard, her son, David Lipscomb, David's girlfriend, Randee Berry, and the "misfits", Patrick, William, and Jamie Lynn. In addition to his immediate family, Calvin Eugene is also survived by his brother, Calvin John Pease, his sisters, Gladys Hart and Phyllis Cubbins, and his numerous cousins nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his beloved mother, Gladys Katie Pease. He will be genuinely missed by all who knew and loved him. Celebration of life service will be 12:00pm Thursday December 22, 2005 in the Mt. View Valley Chapel.

Tears. So Many Tears. My Eyes Don't Have Any More To Cry... Yet, They Still Seem To Fall! It's Been Almost A Year, And I Still Can't Seem To Cope. All I Need Is To Wake Up One Day, And For All Of This To Just Of Been A Dream! So Much Has Changed, And Seems Like If You Were Here... Things Would Be So Different. You Were Always The Voice Of Reason, And Without You, My World Has Officially Fallen Apart. I Know It Wasn't Your Fault That This Happened... But I Can't Seem To Figure Out Why It Did. I Guess I'll Never Know!! LOVE YOU MORE THAN YOU COULD POSSIBLY EVER KNOW!Your one and only,MeatBall!##imported-begin##Sheri##imported-end##

God, I miss you more than the world could ever know. Calvin, you meant so much to me (and still do!), and now you're not going to be here to see me graduate from high school, to walk me down the isle or to even see your grandchildren. It just hurts me so deep inside, like a brick has hit me in the face, over and over again. We are slowly trying to move on, but no matter what we do, the pain has settled inside of us and will never go away. (or so it seems!). I love you will all of my heart. I waited until the crowd cleared. This is for the family. After the worst trip of my life I came back and just wanted to enjoy living again. A walk up the hill, my cat sitting on my lap, just anything normal. One final massage before getting back into the swing of things and in the moment that occurs between being asleep or awake there was Calvin, Christmas 1972. Looking right into my eyes, with a slice of pie and his ever-present carton of chocolate milk saying "It just doesn't get any better than this, man!" It was real. It was him. I was in his world and it is a wonderful place. Thanks for again teaching me how to enjoy life's simple pleasures bro. Your little brother, Johnny##imported-begin##Johnny Doodigain##imported-end##

Calvin was such a nice person to be around, it was such a shock to hear of his passing. He always seemed able to look at everything from a positive viewpoint and that was inspirational to everyone around him. He never seemed to get mad, just more like he was disappointed that someone would let negative feelings take over. He will be missed by all whose lives he touched.##imported-begin##Carl Harrod##imported-end##

Calvin, you were always so nice and caring towards me and always made me feel loved and welcomed. Thank you for taking care of two people I care about truly, and even though this is a horrible event, it has taught me a valuable lesson...not to live life so carelessly and to cherish the friendships I have, because you never know when it will be taken from you. I know you will be looking down taking care of the family. WE ALL MISS YOU. Love, Munchie##imported-begin##Alex##imported-end##

I knew Calvin all my life and went to school with him at Tacoma Baptist School. The last time I talked to Calvin was in July 2005. I asked him if he was still a believer in Jesus Christ and what He had done for us on the cross. Calvin said that "Yes", he did still believe and that he is a christian. I was glad that I asked Calvin that question because now I know for sure where Calvin is and that place is in Heaven!##imported-begin##Tim Worrell##imported-end##

Calvin, hey Young man, we grew up together on 86th St, what a great neighborhood and friends we had, Riding mini bikes, Trick or Treating, attending school, then later in life running into each other and hanging out together. How time passes by quickly, we haven't seen each other in a while, but have talked on the phone now and then through work relations, you always had a kind heart and will be missed, always providing a smile in memories##imported-begin##Cory##imported-end##

Calvin, wow, where has the time gone man? Seems like just yesterday we were sharing more than just a few beers sitting in your old van at your mom's. Now, I learn you've left us and went on ahead, I'm hoping to be there and show us the way, when that call comes. No one was ever as good a friend as you've been through all these years. You may have gone, but you will never be forgotten. Touching so many hearts and lives, leaves a lasting impression forever. Jim##imported-begin##James Porritt##imported-end##
