Well dad, in 2 days it will be 2years since god said it was time for you to come home. Im sure he's taking good care of you. I am finding it out that I have not been able to cope with losing you that dreadful day. I put on a face to hide the pain only to hope nobody see's it. I am sooo truly blessed to have you as my dad. I miss going hunting and fishing with you. You are everywhere with me and so I know I am protected and safe by your ever lasting love. I know you will be waiting at heavens gate to welcome me home when it's time for me. I LOVE YOU DAD EVER SO ETERNALLY!!!##imported-begin##stacy lange##imported-end##

My prayer to the family for your loss. I'll remember Vince as the protector. ANYONE said ANYTHING that he felt was out of line to his family, he would let you know. Then you would have to explain yourself. THEN you would hope he would knock the crap out of you. I'll also remember Vince as a kind friend who would help you when you needed it, AND if there WAS something he couldn't do, he would not hesitate asking someone for help. Vince, you will be greatly missed!##imported-begin##Steve Condon##imported-end##

Our thoughts and prayers to Paula and her family. We've known Vince for the past 15 years. We got to know Vince and Paula by being neighbors in Enumclaw for 4 years. We remember the good times of going fishing together and doing a little bit of camping with our families. Although we had lost touch with Vince and his family for a long time, we are so thankful that we got back in touch with him thanks to his daughter Vicky. Thank you Vicky for getting us back in touch. Vince helped Pat when he broke down in Port Angeles last year and got him and our truck back home safely. That was quite a long way for him to come to tow him back home but he did it with no hesitation. That's the kind of person we remember Vince as, always there to help no matter what and very smart (can't forget to mention that). Thank you Vince for giving us the honor to know you and your family. You will be missed very much and one day we will meet again in heaven.##imported-begin##Pat & Tammy Johnson & girls##imported-end##

I too share the loss and pray for comfort to the rest of Vincent's family. Vincent is everything a big brother should be. I remember his boyhood dream of breaking wild horses. Vincent approached life in the same way. In many ways he showed us how to live life to its fullest. Growing up he was a great example in both failure and success. He showed how to turn failure into success by getting back on the horse immediately after being thrown off. Vince has gone ahead of us again, preparing the way, and waiting for us. We must live our lives to the fullest and fight everything that stands in our way. Vince has been sealed by the powers of heaven to be a brother to Carol and me. One day he will be waiting to show us what he has been doing while we try to live life here without him. I always felt that there was plenty of time to share with him how much I appreciated what he has done for me. When I see him again, I think I will tell him how much I missed him.##imported-begin##Delano Glovick Jr.##imported-end##

Vince A.K.A The Man He was the jack of all and master of some. If there was a problem he could fix it everything from a car to a computer you name it he could do it. Always had a story and wanted to talk about everything possible. You could have a interesting conversation about a rock for three hours and never get board. We will all miss him greatky and we will never forget him. I will miss the man that could make a rainy day seem the brightest nicest day possible. We all love you very much!!!!##imported-begin##Scott Scheffler##imported-end##

There wasn't much Vince couldn't do and if you need help with something he was always willing to help, family, friends, or strangers it made no difference. We always had fun when the family went camping and it sure made those 3 day weekend go way too fast. I am thankful that my kids were able to know and love their Grandpa so much. Even though it didn't work out between myself and Stacy, I always considered Vince my Father-in-law and I will miss him very much. I also know he is in a better place and he is no longer in pain. Vince's life was way too short but and I am honored to have known him and been apart of his family for the past 10 years and counting.##imported-begin##Ryan Fournier##imported-end##
