Justin L Barcus

DEC 11, 1992 - JUL 22, 2006

Born December 11, 1992. Became an angel in Heaven on July 22, 2006. Justin went to school at Frontier Jr. High in Graham. During his short time on earth, he touched so many lives, and taught us all more about love, laughter and to just be patient. Justin is survived by his parents: Lori (Todd) and Glenn (Carla), his brother Nathan, grandparents Kelly and Jan Young, Grandma Marsha, uncles, aunts, cousins, friends at school, friends at Graham Fire and Rescue Dist. 21, and so many more. Justin will be deeply missed by all who knew him. Someday we shall meet again our little bug. We love and miss you already. Viewing will be from 12:00 to 9:00 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday, July 26 and 27 at Mountain View Funeral Home. A service will be held at 12:00 p.m. on Friday, July 28, 2006 in the Mountain View Valley Chapel.

Glenn & Carla, Although we didn't get to know Justin, we know your pain and sadness. Heather is in heaven with Justin. We told her to watch over Justin, and trust me she will. Remember Justin is free of pain, and together we can grieve the loss of our children. Our true condolences to all of you. Here is a poem that I really love, it don't take the pain away, but some how it helps.....If tears could build a stairway And memories a lane I would walk right up to heaven and bring you home again. No farewell words were spoken, No time to say goodbye. You were gone before we knew it And only god knows why. My heart still aches in sadness And secret tears still flow. What it meant to lose you, no one will ever know. The Jones's, Jim, Donna, Curtis, James and Mandy##imported-begin##Jim & Donna Jones & Family##imported-end##

We will miss Justin very much. Justin made quite an impression on Tate. Everybody Tate plays with at school is named Justin. He told me everyday after school that he played with his friend Justin. Field trips to the fire station are not the same without Justin there. We never saw a little boy who liked fire trucks more than Justin. We will never forget his smile!##imported-begin##Tate Murray##imported-end##

Lori & Glenn, No words can express the loss of a loved one, let alone your own child. Just remember he is happy and watching over you, and you will someday see him again. We love you both; if you need anything don't hesitate to call. Remember the good times, and every time you see our grandchildren in those boots, know he was their inspiration! All our love, Ken, Diane, and Heather##imported-begin##Ken & Diane Young##imported-end##

Lori, Just thought I would send you a condelence. My favorite memorie of Justin is when he would try and do something that he knew he couldn't and he would get the precious little impish smile on his face. I will never forget him, he will always be in my heart. God has a new angel with a crooked halo. Love to all Terri##imported-begin##terri baccus##imported-end##

hello, i'm sure that you don't know me. but i attended school w/ Justin! he was in boys choir, and i was in concert choir, so @ one of our very first concerts i met justin. My friend Lacey & I went up & introduced ourselves to him. The next day @ school Lacey and I started talking to him. For the remainder of the year, everytime we saw him he would just give us a huge grin, & give us hugs! i will miss him very much. He taught me that no matter the situation, we should ALWAYS be happy! :] i know that we will all miss his kind heart, but we will see him again soon! Best Condolences,##imported-begin##marisa##imported-end##

Lori and family, We are very sorry to hear of your loss. Justin was a really neat kid. He always loved to watch Arnie while he worked on the houses and seemed so innocent when he would ask "what are you doing?" or "why are you doing that?". He will be greatly missed. You had a really great kid for the short time he was here, but just remember he will always be around you.##imported-begin##Arnie and Shari##imported-end##

Tuesday, July 25Dear Glenn & Lori,I am deeply sorrowed by your loss. It is hard to imagine the grief that you are enduring. My thoughts and prayers are with you.Remember those good times when and keep those close at hand. Based on what you've told me about Justin, he would want to encourage you to keep on, keeping on.Know that Justin is in a far better place than we are, and the love Jesus is demonstrating to him by far, outweighs what he has known with us. I know you love him deeply too and that you miss him. There will be a day in the future that you can be reunited with him. What a day that will be that will be . . .I love you!Sue##imported-begin##Sue Burris##imported-end##
