Helen Ann Ley
Oct. 26, 1938 to June 19, 2008

"I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies and whoever lives and believes in me will never die." -Jesus Christ

Helen was loved by many. She had six beautiful children: Charlotte Ley, Charles Ley, Kathryn Schroeder, Kelly Buchanan, Michelle Hewitt, and Miles Ley. She also had thirteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, all who loved her dearly. She was born in Tacoma and attended Stadium High School. Her father, Walt Wilmoth, was a well-respected auto mechanic. Her mother, Doris, was an antique dealer, and owned the Corner Cupboard Antiques and the Now and Then Shop. Helen's later years were spent in Ruston at the Now and Then Shop with her brother Paul and sister-in-law Tina. She was a regular at the Ruston Inn, where she at one time worked. With Helen's death a generation passes on but it will not be forgotten. Her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren will keep her memory alive.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

We were very close in the early days, and the fun of all the "little ones" was a wonderful blessing. I thank God for Helen and the families she gave me to which I can be Uncle Earl. So good, so blessed and so bright. And when we visited, years of late, enduring joy remembered. Uncle Earl##imported-begin##Earl Ley##imported-end##

Being a mom is a special calling that comes with an awesome responsibility as I am one myself to two beautiful children Lindsey and James and I want to celebrate the life of my mom. I thank God for her and for giving me 5 brothers and sisters whom I love tons! Thanks everyone for the privilege to officiate her graveside service! Yes, it was hard, but healing and for that I am grateful. Remember, each of you is fearfully and wonderfully made and God knows your name and He desires that you know His too! Seek Him and you will find Him and He is the source of all comfort!##imported-begin##Kelly Buchanan##imported-end##

I thank my Mom for making the effort to keep us all in her thoughts and prayers. She always knew when to call and just what to say to make me feel like I was loved. As we continue our walk, I will take my memories of her with me; as we live our lives daily, she will live through me; and as I love, her love will be remembered and treasured.##imported-begin##Charles Ley##imported-end##

This is a tribute to a Mother of six very successful children. They are successful at living life. They are successful in their families, they are successful in their careers, and they are successful in their communities. The Mothering these children got in their early years is what set their little feet on the path to this success. We are remembering that Mother today.##imported-begin##Harold Ley##imported-end##
