Dear Ron,I met you in 1993 at MCNeil as an officer. You were the Sergeant on call and we called you alot for your guidance. I respected you for your knowledge in the art of Corrections. Ten years later in 2003 you were a Correctional Unit Supervisor at the North Complex and I was assigned as one of your Unit Sergeants. It has been a high honor to have known you as a supervisor and a dear friend. I will miss you. Best wishes to your family.##imported-begin##Albert Franklin##imported-end##
