While I never met you Lynn, I did know you. You were all of what true Acacians stand for which is kindness, truth, and discovery. While I will not understand why you were taken so early from this earth, I do know that you were picked to be with God in paradise. As a fellow Acacian, and a Master Mason, I know you will be missed, but your life will never be forgotten. My thoughts are with your family and I am deeply saddened I was not able to attend the service today.##imported-begin##Dustin Reischman##imported-end##

Dear Joan, Trevor and Troy, I was shocked and saddened to read about Lynn's death. When I think of Park Lodge families, I see yours as a model of kindness, respect and high expectations. Seeing you at school always was a treat for me. The "Peace Garden" will bring back memories as an example of the Horn family's impact on Park Lodge. I appreciate each of you and offer my love at this difficult time. I had hoped to attend the funeral, but my husband is speaking at a memorial service which is also scheduled Monday afternoon. My thoughts and prayers will be with you. Fondly, Rita Happy Ely##imported-begin##Rita Happy Ely##imported-end##

I was saddened to hear of Lynn's passing earlier today. I met Lynn in 7th grade and had the privilege of attending the same school as he did through our graduation at WSU. My heart hurts for the Horn family. Please know that all of you are in my thoughts and prayers. Lynn is one of the good guys and thinking of him brings a smile to my face.##imported-begin##Dennis E Hewitt##imported-end##
