Lisa Marie Melancon

AUG 15, 1969 - JUN 22, 2010

Lisa Marie Melancon (Veach) was born August 15, 1969 in Sacramento, CA. A brilliant student, Lisa challenged her teachers to stimulate her intellect. It was no surprise to us that she graduated early from high school with a 4.0 GPA. While raising her beautiful son Brendan as a single mother, Lisa began a better life for her little family when she started her career with the City of Tacoma in 1995. As a Customer Service Assistant in the Building & Land Use Department, Lisa fielded citizen complaints about blighted properties and coordinated the workload of Inspectors, spearheading the Tacoma Cares program. Citizens grew to love this amazing woman who followed each case with due diligence to make their community become a better place. Expressions of their appreciation poured in with calls, cards, flowers, and letters. Lisa herself volunteered countless hours of personal time to neighborhood beautification. Lisa became the first female Building Inspector for the City of Tacoma, championing the Community Based Services Program. While citizens didn't always enjoy her arrival, she usually made a friend by the time she left. People were drawn to her magnetic personality, her hospitality, and her genuine love of people. Lisa loved life and knew how to enjoy it to the fullest. To know Lisa was to love her. This is exactly what her wonderful husband Joe Melancon did. Lisa and Joe were soul mates, loving each other with every fiber of their being, and adopting everyone into their family that came their way. They traveled all over the world together and played softball on the same team. Their love will live forever.

Lisa Melancon leaves behind husband Joe Melancon, son, Brendan Wilson, mother & father Kathy & Manny Silva, brothers Vincent Silva and Christopher Veach, sister Stephani Bubnick, and countless other relatives and friends that will never be able to heal this hole in our hearts.

Lisa's memorial service will be held at The Tacoma Dome's Exhibition Hall, 2727 East D Street, on Wednesday, July 28, 2010 at 7 PM. There will be a public viewing of her body Tuesday -

My wife and I would like to express our deepest sympathies to the family of Lisa Marie Melancon. We're so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is not something we ever get used to. We cannot even begin to know what you are going through. However, please be assured that the God of all comfort knows what you are suffering and he cares for you. This can be seen from Psalm 34:18 which says: "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." This God of comfort promises a time when we will have the opportunity to see our loved ones again. John 5:28, 29 says: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out, those who practiced good things to a resurrection of life..." God and his son look forward to resurrecting those who have died, because they too look forward to seeing them again. We hope these scriptures may be a source of comfort to you now and in the days ahead. While Lisa will be greatly missed, it's obvious that she will be remembered by those who knew her as a warm-hearted and caring person. Again, we would like to extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family of Lisa Marie Melancon. Sincerely, Vaughan and Denise Amende##imported-begin##Vaughan and Denise Amende##imported-end##

I am very sad to hear about Lisa's passing. My thoughts and prayers are with the family at this time of sadness. Lisa was the type of person that I did mind putting my work aside to sit and gab with her for 20 minutes or so while she came in with or without her pets. I will miss her shiny and bright smile that she had. My heart goes out to all of you. Stephanie Best-Jones Animal Hospital##imported-begin##Stephanie Best##imported-end##
